

Collegiate Girls' High School

Collegiate Girls' High School, founded in 1874, is a public girls school situated in Port Elizabeth, Eastern Cape. It is renowned for its academic excellence and its holistic education.

The School Governing Body invites applications for the following SGB position:

Mathematics Educator Grades 8 - 12

Commencement date: January 2019

Minimum requirements:

- A Bachelor's degree in Mathematics, and a professional teaching qualification (PGCE or HDE)
- Appropriate educational experience and excellent content knowledge
- Excellent interpersonal, written and oral skills
- Sound administrative ability
- The ability to assist with extra-curricular activities
- Proof of registration with SACE

Highly recommended requirements:

- Five years teaching experience
- Three years teaching experience at Grade 12 level
- Ability to incorporate technology in their teaching
- Knowledge of the needs of girls and a commitment to the benefits of girls-only education
- Experience in teaching other related subjects such as Physical Sciences and Technology

Applications should include: a letter of motivation; a comprehensive CV; other subjects offered; extra-murals offered; certified copies of qualifications; academic transcripts; and names of two contactable referees.

Please submit applications per email to:

The Principal

collegia@cghs.co.za

Closing date: 21 June 2018